FOLK NIGHT AT THE REGISTRY Presents the 3rd and 4th concerts in series:

- Friday, January 26th : EVE GOLDBERG BAND: Toronto songwriter returns to Kitchener .
- Friday, February 2nd : MIDNIGHT CLEAR, GLEN SOULIS & NORMAN LIOTA:
Local musicians take the Registry stage!

Eve Goldberg sings music that draws honey from the rock of life. A compelling writer and interpreter, Eve's watercolour voice and solid guitar style has made her a favourite with audiences across Canada and the US. Her performances are intimate and relaxed, moving effortlessly from folk classics to original gems. Since 1990, she has performed her trademark mixture of folk, blues, country, bluegrass, old time, and jazz in venues across Canada and the U.S. ranging from small house concerts to the prestigious Kennedy Center in Washington DC. Along the way she's earned the respect of legendary musicians like Peggy Seeger, Geoff Muldaur, and Penny Lang. She has released three CDs to widespread acclaim: "Ever Brightening Day", "Crossing the Water", and her latest, "A Kinder Season". www.evegoldberg.com
*Eve will be joined by veteran Toronto musicians Ken Whiteley and Victor Bateman.

EVE GOLDBERG with Ken Whiteley and Victor Bateman
Opening act: Celtic guitarist Bob MacLean
Friday, January 26, 2007. $12 Advance, $14 at the door.

Folk Night is pleased to include regional musicians in all of our concerts, and on February 2nd three local acts are featured. Midnight Clear has been performing together for over 10 years and recently released their first CD, "Splice of Life". This harmony quartet creates fun with many different styles of music, including folk, pop, jazz, and classical. www.midnightclear.org
Glen Soulis is well known as one half of the Beirdo Brothers. Glen is an unforgettable performer and a virtuoso on many instruments (including violin and flute), and has recently released 2 CDs of songs on the penny whistle. www.glensoulis.ca
Norman Liota was trained as a classical guitarist but cut his teeth on virtually every idiom. His nimble fingers cover an expanse of open tunings, cascading harmonics, stunning techniques, and rhythmic intensity. Acclaimed as "one of the best acoustic guitarists ever", "Liota's skills as a composer and vocalist are as formidable as his guitar virtuosity". www.normanliota.com
